Feel the rush of the free-fall. Seconds of pure exhilaration as we race toward the earth at over 120 miles per hour. The wind roars in our ears. And for a moment we are weightless. And just like that, the chute opens and the world becomes still. It is like flying in a dream. As we gently descend, the thrill turns into pure joy. We land softly. Heart racing and spirit soaring. Jump in and take the leap!
